

AUTUMN TALKS PROGRAMME 2020

8 October - 10 December

Talks delivered by zoom, 10 am - 12 noon

October

- 8 Presentations from two members: Martin Corfe, Dorothy Beera's slides of life along the Taw & Torridge in 1980s, & Paula Ferris, The Sea Slug's story, a seashore wonder
- 15 Rewilding - creating more space for wild nature and wildlife across Europe, Dr Robert Stoneman, Area Co-ordinator for Rewilding Europe
- 22 Geology and landscape in Devon, Professor Malcolm Hart, Plymouth University
- 29 Hope in Hell, the Climate Emergency, Jonathon Porritt, leading environmentalist & writer

November

- 5 Marine images, the inspiration and stories behind them, Mike Puleston, The Shores of South Devon co-ordinator
- 12 Rocky seashores as ecological experimental test systems & climate change indicators, Professor Stephen Hawkins, Southampton University
- 19 North Atlantic Storminess, Sam Hallam, researcher, Southampton University
- 26 Rockpooling in winter, Heather Buttivant, author Rock Pool - Extraordinary Encounters between the Tides

December

- 3 Stuck on boring organisms- a tale of love and many chance events, Dr Luisa Borges, L3 Scientific Solutions
- 10 Fascinating marine animals: the questions they pose & challenges they face, Dr Paul Naylor, Marine Biologist

Fee £20 for 10 sessions.

Contact

Membership Secretary - sandraknightuk@yahoo.com

www.coastwisenorthdevon.org.uk

FACEBOOK - Coastwise North Devon, Twitter - @CoastwiseR