

SPRING TALKS PROGRAMME 2021

14 January - 18 March

Talks delivered by zoom, 10 am - 12 noon

January

- 14 The Con(servation) Man of the South Devon AONB Estuaries and Coast, Nigel Mortimer, Estuaries Manager
- 21 Getting the most out of seaweed - seaweed biorefineries and the Blue Bioeconomy, Dr Sarah Hotchkiss, CyberColloids
- 28 A journey by Kayak in Chile, sea-kayaker James Corfe

February

- 4 Rocky seashores as ecological experimental test systems & climate change indicators, Professor Stephen Hawkins, MBA
- 11 Polychaetous annelids, a beautiful diversity, Dr Andrew Mackie, Honorary Research Fellow, National Museum Wales
- 18 Can we harvest nuisance seaweed blooms, Cat Oliver, Aberystwyth University PhD researcher, formerly NDAONB Coastal Creatures Officer
- 25 The restless lives of fish and crustaceans in the Bristol Channel, Dr Peter Henderson, Pisces Conservation

March

- 4 Members' shore safari feedback (safari details tbc)
- 11 Making Space for Nature: past, present and future, Sir John Lawton
- 18 Spring has Sprung - what to look-out for, Dr Keith Hiscock, MBA

Fee £20 for 10 sessions.

Contact

Membership Secretary - sandraknightuk@yahoo.com

www.coastwisenorthdevon.org.uk

FACEBOOK - Coastwise North Devon, Twitter - @CoastwiseR